

Tailored support for your workplace

We can work with you to provide tailored support and practical solutions to address challenges at your workplace.

How it works

You'll start by talking to an Acas adviser about the challenges you're facing and what you've tried already.

They will work with you and your staff to put together practical solutions. They can also work with your trade union or employee representatives where appropriate.

The support can range from a couple of days to a longer-term project, depending on what you need and your budget.

The type of support we can offer includes:

- helping you manage organisational change
- running workshops and focus groups
- carrying out employee surveys and setting up employee forums
- bringing your management and staff representatives together to solve problems

We aim to leave you with the tools, knowledge and expertise to move things forward yourself after we've worked with you.
